Rabat, Morocco, 7 December 2022

Secretaries General,
Dear colleagues,

It is with great pleasure that I write to announce that the next meeting of our Association will take place, in person, between Saturday 11 March and Wednesday 15 March 2023, in parallel with the 146th Assembly of the Inter-Parliamentary Union. The meetings of the ASGP will take place in the Sofitel Bahrain Zallaq Hotel.

Please find attached to this email the draft orders of the day for our meetings. The programme remains subject to change, the definitive orders of the day will be adopted during our first full plenary meeting, which will begin at 11am on Sunday 12 March 2023.

Several general debates are planned; on 'Gender inequality in parliaments - what are the solutions?' and 'MPs and conflicts of interest'. Communications can be submitted on new subjects, or under the following themes proposed in the agenda; 'Current affairs', 'The role of parliaments in combatting climate change' and 'Participation of citizens in the work of Parliament'.

Please send the title of your proposed communication to Elektra Garvie-Adams (garvieadamse@parliament.uk), by Friday 17 February. If accepted onto the agenda for Bahrain, you must provide a written text of your communication, in English and French, before the start of the ASGP conference. These written texts, in Word Document format, will be published on the ASGP website.

I would also like to announce that an election will be organised during this session, to fill one post of ordinary member of the Executive Committee. A note setting out the procedure for the elections will be circulated and published on the website separately (<https://www.asgp.co/future-meetings>)

For all the practical details regarding the session, I invite you to take time to review the Co-Secretaries letter.

Yours Sincerely,

Najib EL KHADI
President of the ASGP
